

Ricky Dean Bro

Copenhagen, Denmark | [REDACTED] | rickydeanbro@gmail.com
rickydeanbro.com

Summary

Ricky Dean Bro, 19

- Runs creative agency & animation studio SOME GODS CANT FLY, where I organize and lead creative projects across design and animation for brands and artists. I collaborate closely with multi-disciplined artists to bring both physical and digital projects to life
- Key member of a startup sold to artist Kanye West, and was subsequently hired as a designer, and then editor, at YEEZY — a globally recognized fashion brand. This experience honed my ability to meet high-profile client demands, develop visionary concepts, and refine my communication, leadership, and collaboration skills
- Studied at Niels Brock Business School and Copenhagen Business Academy, two renowned international business institutions in Copenhagen. My education furthered my knowledge of international business strategy and corporate finance
- In addition to my professional endeavors, I apply my financial expertise to personal investment strategies, focusing on long-term growth and global market diversification

Education

Marketing Management | Copenhagen Business Academy, Copenhagen, Denmark
2024 – 2026

Specializing in marketing, entrepreneurship, communication, and sales within an international context

EUX Business | Niels Brock Business College, Copenhagen, Denmark
2022 – 2024

Focused on sales, marketing, economics, business law, organization, innovation, and UI design

Primary Education | Kokkedal School, Kokkedal, Denmark
2012 – 2022

Professional Experience

Chief Executive Officer | SOME GODS CANT FLY

May 2024 – Present

Founded and led a creative agency and animation studio, directing innovative projects to achieve creative excellence and expand client reach

Editor | YEEZY

Mar 2025 – Present

Led editorial projects for Milo Yiannopoulos and Kanye West at his news platform. Curated daily content within editorial guidelines and researched various topics including business, finance, technology, politics, architecture, fashion, and pop culture

Designer | YEEZY

Apr 2024 – May 2024

Collaborated with figures such as Milo Yiannopoulos, Aus Taylor, and Kanye West himself, and a global team to create visual concepts for the YZY APP. Contributed to brand identity by designing UI/UX prototypes and key brand assets using Figma

Lead Designer | YZY APP

Feb 2024 – May 2024

Directed design elements for a music and digital experience platform, acquired by Kanye West. Partnered with international teams to deliver creative solutions

Music Producer | Freelance

Aug 2023 – Present

Produced music for underground artists, integrating experimental techniques and original compositions

Skills

Creative Direction | Project Management | Leadership | Branding | Finance | Social Media Management

Languages

Danish: Native proficiency

English: Fluent in writing and speaking

Interests

Passionate about creative problem-solving, innovation, and technology. Previously participated in LEGO League, an international robotics competition, where I developed an interest in AI, machine learning, and robotics, showcasing teamwork and ingenuity